THE BURGLAR AND THE EDITOR.

A burglar climbed into an editor's room.

Needy and poor was he.

And he saw in the dim, uncertain glow.

With legs as long as the stem of a broom.

A pair of trousers "I'll just freeze to 'em,"

He chuckled with genial glee.

He lifted them up from the back of a chair;

Lightly they hung on his arm;

They were the editor's trousers; they were

Thinner than gossamer every where;

Oh, but the knees were worn and bare—

Good clothes—when the weather warm.

All over the room he searched in vain;

There was no more to find;

No passing drops from a golden rain—

Only the wealth of the sleeper's brain.

The peace of the editor's mind.

He turned his back on that happy home,

Thoughtfully hefting those pants;

Out of the window he cautiously glanced;

He caught the peepers—a broken camp,

A half-a-penny, a shilling, a dime,

Answered his searching glance.

He started; the tears flashed into his eyes;

He leaped up, and hefted the pants;

A look of surprise, a look of surprise,

Softened his face, he hefted his pants;

He looked at the pants, and measured its size;

Value—about nine cents.

Into his pockets—his own—he went,

And he dragged out a ten-dollar bill;

And he hastily crumpled it, every cent,

Into the editor's pocket, and went

The trousers into a sack, and sent

Then on to a weather house he sped—

He said to himself, and when again he had

And the editor rose from his virtuous bed

And found the money, he whistled and said,

"Well, I am essentially bowed!"

A Wonderful Clock.

We give a brief description of a clock made by Mr. Felix Meier, of Detroit, Mich., which is said to eclipse

all former achievements in this direction, without excepting even the Strasbourg clock, which for so many years has been regarded as the great clock of the world.

Mr. Meier's clock is the result of nearly ten years of patient labor and the expenditure of $7,000 in cash.

The clock is eighteen feet in height, eight feet wide, by five feet deep, and weighs 1,000 pounds. It is of a beautiful proportions; the framework is entirely of black walnut elegantly carved. Above the main body of the clock is a marble dome, upon which

Washington sits in his chair of state, protected by a canopy, which is surmounted by a globe and a Colossal

a colored statue in ivory guarding

the pillars that support the canopy; on the four corners of the main body of the clock are black walnut niches containing figures of the two lower ones are supported by two female figures with flaming torches; one of them contains the figure of a youth, the third of a man in middle life, the fourth of an aged gray-headed man, and the

center, contains a grinning skeleton representing Father

Time. All of these figures have bells and hammers in their hands. The infant's bell is small and sweet toned;

the youth's bell, larger and harsher;

the bell of manhood, still louder and stronger; and the bell of the skeleton strong, and the bell of the skeleton

BEECH'S BOY.

An Incident of the Prevention of Cruelty in New York.

Henry Beech, Jr., appeared in the Court of Special Sessions yesterday against James Butler, a driver in the employ of M. Luterbach, a Forty-fourth street butcher. He said: "I

THE SOUTH KENTUCKIAN.

HOPKINSVILLE, SEP. 30, 1879.

SOCIALITIES.

Miss Willie Henry of Casky, was in the city Sunday.

Judge Joe McCarroll paid a flying trip to Evansville Thursday.

Mr. Chas. F. McCarroll paid a business trip to Uniontown last week.

Mr. R. E. Harrison of the Elkton Register was in the city last week in the interest of that paper.

Mrs. Mark McCarty of Cadiz will arrive in the city Thursday and spend some days with her friends here.

Misses Jessie Bobb, of New Orleans, and Mary Holloway, of Henderson, are visiting friends in the city.

Miss Westfall, and Miss Wharton returned from Casky Sunday evening after spending a day or two with the Miss Henrys.

Prof. Chase of Louisville was in the city last week and delivered a very argumentative and interesting speech in favor of the school question to be voted on in November.

Messrs. Mike Kelly and Smith Galpin of Cadiz, passed through the city Saturday on their way to Evansville and Princeton, Ind., to see their sweethearts.

We are pleased to receive a call last week from Mr. F. B. Richardson, of Ky., who is a nephew of Col. Ned Richardson of this State. Mr. Richardson is here to attend the Law School at the University.—[Oxford (Miss) Falcon.

Mrs. Dr. Jno. L. Cook of Henderson, a candidate for the office of State Librarian is in the city the guest of of Hon. Jno. Feland. The same spirit of gratitude that gave Dr. Blackburn the office of Governor, for his services in the yellow fever scourge last year, ought to give Mrs. Cook, the widow of Dr. Cook who died fighting it at Hickman, the office of State Librarian.

A double wedding will occur at Trenton next Thursday. Messrs. Phil Bacon and Chas. D. Runyon, will be married to Misses Etta Dickason, and Louie Barnes respectively. They will be married at 11 o'clock and start immediately on a bridal tour to St. Louis and other cities. As our efficient correspondent at that place will be somewhat interested in the affair, we trust some friend will supply his place, and give us a report of the wedding ceremonies.

Felicitous Occasion.

Few if any entertainments have been given in the city, during the summer, of a more pleasant character than that at Dr. F. M. Gray's last Tuesday evening. It combined the dance and social together and no one could fail to enjoy himself. The commodious hall afforded ample facilities for dancing, and the large parlors furnished innumerable corners and secluded seats for those who wished to converse "in accents soft and low."

The company was very large, embracing an overwhelming proportion of the beauty and gallantry of the city. Mrs. Gray the hostess assisted by several other ladies used every endeavor to make the occasion agreeable and pleasant to all. Not the least enjoyable feature was the delightful supper of which all were invited to partake. Everything nice in the way of edibles was spread upon the beautifully arranged tables in profuse abundance. Truly it was a season of pleasure, and enjoyment.

IMPROVEMENTS.

Mrs. Dunbar is having a large and handsome dwelling erected on Nashville street next to her present millinery stand.

The house of Mr. Dick Quarles, next to the Methodist church on Nashville St. is rapidly approaching completion and will be a very comely building.

The eastern in the Court House yard is to have a lattice house put over it, we understand.

South street is being piked. Good idea.

POLICE NEWS.

Jeff Edmunds a negro boy confined in the Cadiz Jail made his escape last week and came to this place. He was arrested, and held over till Jailer Shoemaker of that place arrived, and carried him back.

Uncle Johny Montgomery, thought his rights were infringed upon one day last week by Bob Griesman, and proceeded to make some pugilistic arguments against it, but unfortunately the court took a different view of it and fined him $2.50 and cost.

Hitherto we have not asked our subscribers for money through our columns. The time, however, is so short now till the distribution of prizes, that we take occasion to remind those who are delinquent that they have only a little over one week in which to pay and get tickets.

In order to let each one know how he stands on our books, we will, with this issue, put a cross after the name of every one who owes for his paper. We are desirous that every subscriber should have a ticket, and trust that all who have not paid will do so in time. Money sent by mail will be receipted and tickets promptly returned. The manner of conducting the distribution will be simple and fair. A tag representing the number of each ticket will be placed in a box, and some one will be called from the crowd and blindfolded and will draw from the box twelve times, shaking it well each time. The first draw will entitle the holder of the ticket to the gold watch, the second to the buggy, and so on down to the last of the twelve prizes. This is perfectly fair as all can see at a glance.

HERE AND THERE.

Read J. S. Cohn's new advertisement.

Several communications came in too late for insertion.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Ware and Patton.

"Rockford" Quick train watches are the best. How is the only man in town who sells them.

A big meeting is going on at Casky. A good many of our people went out last Sunday.

Messrs. G. Howard Speck and T. P. Ennis returned Sunday from a pleasant trip to Dayton, Ohio.

The Debating Society will hold a business meeting at Brethitt & Payne's Law office next Friday night.

Mr. W. T. Townes will return from Va., Oct. 15 and remain in this city a week or two in the interest of his business.

Don't fail to call on S. H. Turner and get a supply of writing paper, music and song books, also fancy candies and canned goods.

We have just cleaned out our waste-basket, and are now ready to receive poems on "the beautiful autumn," with its clear and yellow leaves, etc.

Messrs. Roach & Latham are still receiving goods in large quantities. They have already on hand one of the largest and best selected stocks ever brought to the city, which they are selling cheap. Call and examine for yourself.

Another circus will be here, boys, Oct. 28, and this one will be a "show what is a show." W. W. Cole's is the one this time and it has been here before and we know it is a good one. Save your quarters.

The engine was called out yesterday morning by an alarm of fire, which turned out to be Mr. Schmitt's ice house. We did not learn how it caught, but it had been extinguished when the engine arrived though it was there in a very short while.

Mr. G. H. Merritt has in his yard in this city two pear trees in full bloom. They withered and shed their leaves during the dry weather of the summer, but the recent rains caused them to put forth leaves again and they are now blooming as if it were Spring.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Mr. T. Harris, Merchant Tailor, in this issue. He comes from Paducah and is spoken of in favorable terms by the paper at that place. Hopkingsville has long felt the need of an establishment of the kind, and our people ought to encourage home enterprises, and patronize Mr. Harris liberally. His shop is on Virginia street next to the Post Office.

Ladies if you want a handsome Necklace, a fine gold watch and chain, a stylish set of jewelry, a fine gold ring or anything in the jewelry line, flowe's old established jewelry store is the place to go to get them. Mr. Howe will not deceive you and he is responsible for every article bought in his house. His new goods are perfectly beautiful, don't fail to see them.

Mr. John Young and his wife were out driving Sunday afternoon when the horse became frightened near the depot, and came dashing down Nashville street at a furious rate. Just as they passed Means' livery stable Mr. Young was thrown from the buggy but fortunately the horse was stopped at that critical moment, and she was caught while falling backward from the vehicle. It was a narrow escape indeed.

The Debating Society met Friday night and formally re-organized electing Sam O. Graves President, R. W. Henry, Vice President; W. R. Clark, Secretary; and Jno. W. Payne Treasurer. The school tax question was selected for debate Friday night, Oct. 17th. The committee on debate consists of Messrs. Clark, Payne, Henry and Brethitt. Due notice will be given in these columns of place of meeting.

An Authority on Black Eyes.—Harry Hill, the famous "Sport," is said to know more about black eyes than the brightest brunette in America. He has given and taken thousands in this city, and he says that the only thing which will remove them within twelve hours is Glaze's Eminent Ointment. Sold by all druggists. Send for pamphlet. Trial size 25 cents.

CROFTON.

If there be a man on this earth for whom we are truly sorry it is the man who inherits only a love for whisky and the sick headache.

Mr. Allbright is marshal of this town.

There is one crop of tobacco here that the hail did not damage and it was so small the hail could not hit it.

John B. Cansler, the finest looking man between the "Big Sandy" and the "Jackson Purchase," has taken a position with James Yancey, under the South Kentucky office.

Boly Clark, son of B. F. Clark, died at his father's yesterday. He was a good young man, for years a member of the Baptist church.

We learn that a lodge of Knights of Pythias is to soon be organized at Kelly's.

When you see an old field teacher at church with a rose pinned to a lapel of his coat you just set it down that his "thoughts are with his heart and both are far away."

Our old friend H. H. McCutcheon is as remorseless as the grave. Why he would as soon let down a window right in the middle of an unfinished tale of love as not.

Eld. J. T. Barrow, of the Baptist church, preached the funerals of Sam Boyd and wife, deceased, to the largest audience at Kelly's to-day that we have ever seen there.

If we are able to feed and follow three dogs it is nobody's business but our own. If we owed anybody then we would have no right to hunt until our debts were paid, but as it is we do not and we mean to hang away hit or miss.

One of our merchants told us that he sold more goods yesterday than any day this year.

There is a corn field near this town where the squirrels have eaten as much as ten barrels of corn.

We are a Republican but we are for Garnett tooth and toe nail. That man is smart and we do so like smart men.

The fact of the business is we could write a whole column of real splendid reading matter, while we are getting up these little trashy items. Why we could let in and describe a gal, but dang it we have been describing girls for ten years and just about the time we get one famous, why here comes some lean, lank hungry looking fellow looking for all the world like an Editor of a Democratic paper and takes her in out of the weather. We are tired of this. We will put up with no more of it.

Well no: We do not want an assistant teacher: but we would like ever so much to have some fair hand to fry meat and sew on buttons till death do separate us. Hiram.

CERULEAN SPRINGS.

Prof. Bill Sharp predicts a cold winter although that frost he spoke of has not put in an appearance yet.

The farmers are busy cutting and housing their tobacco, and wheat sowing will next be in order.

Tom Jones and Eli Slade say it isn't particularly healthy to sit in a buggy and watch a horse kick the thing to pieces.

Those gents that destroyed the Widow Sizemore's water melon patch had to dance to the tune of $15.00 and trimmings down at Squire Turner's court. Was about as good for them as a dose of mustard seed shot.

Cerulean is to be honored with a new dry goods man. Mr. Bingham of Wallonia has rented the house formerly occupied by Carr. Blackely and will bring on a stock of goods immediately.

Our friend Ed. Blackely has sold his house and lot to Joe Atwood another one of our blacksmiths. Mr. Blackely will move to Bellevue where he will continue to work at his trade. Mr. John Daniel talks of going with Mr. Blackely to do the wood work; he is Jack of all trades, first class Silver smith, good wood workman, gunsmith, and when it comes to a dry joke "get away chile." We wish them much success.

Mr. James Jones has returned home after spending the summer in Williamson county Illinois. Jim says he likes the sucker state very well, especially the Illinois girls.

Since the Springs have closed, and Mr. Harper has returned to his farm everything down there looks as still as the grave, and as lonely as the Devil during a protracted meeting.

The Ceruleanites were highly entertained last Saturday by a temperance lecture from Prof. Wayland of Cadiz. But a man had about as well preach Women's Rights to a Mormon as to talk temperance to the average young man of this community.

Health is generally good; some few cases of chills, owing to an over-eating of green watermelons, and the high price of Quinine.

Remember the Fair all ye small boys; save your dimes and invest in five cent prize boxes, and come home with 10 or 15 dollars, clear profit.

Married: At the bride's father's the Rev. Spurlin, Mr. Robert Miller to Miss Adie Bearfield, of this county. As they have set out on life's journey together with happy and loving hearts, they have our best wishes and may their days be many, and full of joys. And their arms be full of girls and boys.

STEVE CLIFF.

Resolved 2nd. That each Grange in this county is respectfully requested to send a delegation of their members to meet with us at the above place to take into consideration the action of the tobacco board of trade of Hopkingsville in reference to the sale of Tobacco, believing as we do that said action is unjust and detrimental to the interest of the Tobacco growers of this section. By order of the Grange. J. D. Clardy, W. M. John A. Browning, Secy.
